

Signing In / Host a Meeting / Joining a Meeting

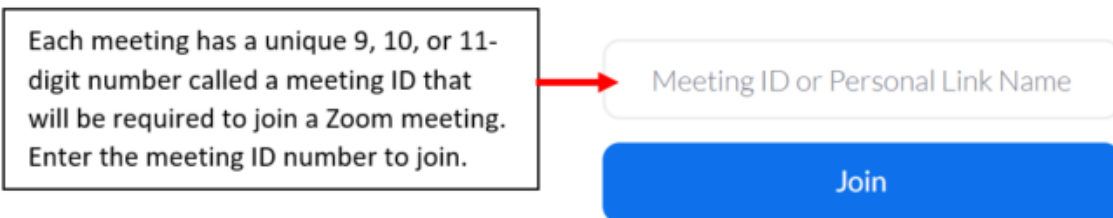

Zoom provides the first Unified Meeting Experience platform that brings HD video conferencing, mobility and web meetings together as a free cloud service. So you can have crystal-clear video conversation and high-quality screen sharing, anytime, from anywhere.

Go to <https://strath.zoom.us/> and click on Sign In. You can use your Strathclyde "e-mail" and "password".

The screenshot shows the Zoom 'Video Conferencing' menu. At the top is the University of Strathclyde Glasgow logo. Below it, the text 'Video Conferencing' is centered. Three options are listed: 'Join' (Connect to a meeting in progress), 'Host' (Start a meeting), and 'Sign in' (Configure your account). The 'Sign in' button is circled in red. Two callout boxes with red arrows point to the 'Join' and 'Host' buttons. The first callout box says 'Select "Join" to join a meeting.' and the second says 'Select "Host" to start a meeting.'

Join a Meeting

The screenshot shows the 'Join a Meeting' form. It has a text input field labeled 'Meeting ID or Personal Link Name' and a blue 'Join' button. A callout box with a red arrow points to the input field. The callout box contains the text: 'Each meeting has a unique 9, 10, or 11-digit number called a meeting ID that will be required to join a Zoom meeting. Enter the meeting ID number to join.'
